FEBRUARY 2007 NEWS UPDATE FOR OUR THERAPISTS, STUDENTS AND MEMBERS.

MESSAGE FROM SEAN- FOUNDER OF THE TAU COMMUNITY OF SAINT FRANCIS

*I have planted the seed of truth in your heart all you have to do is connect with it
Water & nourish it daily & watch the lotus flower blossom within you Open your heart not your mind & connect with the divine wisdom which has been Waiting for you from the beginning of time all the answers to your questions lie within
If you do not go within you go without you dwell in poverty of spirit – by Peter Christian

My Dearest and Special Friends; my Brother and Sister Essenes,

I now write to you from my heart and ask that you please make time to read the following News Update as it contains several important information as well as two messages from Sananda Jesus to all of us as well as some positive information with regard to our future as an interfaith community of light workers.

Firstly, may I share with you that in light of not having any secretarial backup to deal with my own self employment (The Academy and Therapeutic Pathways Consultancy) the sheer volume of work that greets me each day on top of the clients phoning me for support is now piling high leaving me with little or no time for myself.

I know that with current negotiations re acquiring a property for our centre that the volume of activity will get more demanding and hence the need to prioritise. I would like to say that because of this I will not be emailing you for an indefinite period. However, if you need any support as members of the academy, then please contact our sister Theresa, head of the Pastoral Team. If it concerns supporting the charity, then please direct all enquiries to our sister Irene who is the Hon. Secretary for the Tau Community. Any other matters then be guided by your hearts. Re: making a donation to support our work, then please contact our Sister Marlene or if it is to take out membership, then please contact our sister Janet Williams.

Prior to going to Taba in January with our wonderful group, I was trying to negotiate with my dear friend Lesley who resides nearby and who owns the field at the lower end of our village. Lesley kindly offered the Tau community the sole access to her field so that we could use it for our needs. Initially, Elizabeth, one of our benefactors and now a student therapist kindly offered to donate a caravan for the use of our members and any clients in need of respite /holidays. A wonderful gift and despite every effort to get an initial approval re: Planning consent, our efforts were aborted because of living in an area of outstanding natural beauty. (A.O.N.B.). I also was guided by Jesus to write to the English Heritage as well as the National Trust to see if they would consider allowing our community become tenants in one of their properties. No reply! Then on Monday morning my good friend and neighbour Lesley telephoned me to say that she had been informed through the 'Grapevine' that a substantial property owned by the National Trust here in the South Lakes was empty! You can imagine my frame of mind and how my heart was reacting to such glimmers of hope! Since then, I have been preparing reports as Chair of the Trustees for their Regional Manager to see if they will consider our non profit making organisation. My heart guided me to take a leap of faith on Saturday morning with our Sister Theresa and Elizabeth to go and see this property. It was daunting, exciting and it had the 'wild, feel good factors' that we would need. But as we are only at the initial stages of our enquiries, much work has to be done and time is a premium especially trying to oversee fundraising, drawing up policies and protocols etc with our Pastoral Coordinator that there is not sufficient time in a given day to achieve this mammoth task –hence writing to you to ask for your prayers and more importantly for practical support from each one of you as we enter a decisive stage. The Tau community cannot carry unnecessary baggage and what we now desperately seek from our members is 100% support as we now negotiate the property for our survival. Are you able to help me help you and reach out in the name of Divine Love to all light workers offering them respite and ongoing support? If so, then please join me in prayer and ask Jesus to speak to your hearts as to ways that you can help the vision get muscle and a healthy blood supply to its bare bones.

The Tau Charity –an update

The Trustees and Management Committee are now finalising their reports following their meetings held in Egypt in late January 2007. If you would like to receive a copy of our report, then please e-mail me.

Proposed Tau Centre for South Lakes.

Negotiations are already in progress re: securing a property in the South Lakes with the National Trust and I am using all efforts and skills to negotiate with their Regional Director for such a property on behalf of the membership and our clients as well as all carers and therapists in need of support and respite.

I would stress that as we are not in receipt of any funding from the local authorities, lottery etc that we are always reminded how we are still solvent. The running costs are currently funded by donations from several clients who have taken out life memberships as well as coming from sponsored events from the kindness of our Trustees and Management Committee. We welcome whatever support each of you can give at this time until we access our registration to apply formally for specific funds to support our endeavours.

At our Trustees meeting in January, it was passed that membership for our Therapists are set at 10.00. If you have not already joined as a voting member, then please reconsider and support our vision. Every penny collected is used to go towards the centre costs.

When we challenged Lord Sananda to guide us as to the time of the centre, He said that Autumn 2007 would see dramatic changes take place. In light of this encouraging message from Jesus to our sister Lesley I have been asking myself over and over many times, "Are we ready for that challenge"? I know that several of us have been busy preparing for the centre and preparing the necessary Policies, Procedures and Protocols in readiness for the reception of volunteers, resident members of the Tau Community and clients.

As the founder of the community I take my responsibilities seriously by ensuring that we seek Divine guidance from Sananda Jesus and then make every decision based in the knowledge that we have His blessing so as to secure the future of all our resident members who will be giving up their homes etc to live as committed community members in our Tau centre. It is a challenge of love based on trust in God. All we can do is to cast our bread upon the water and wait patiently for the Lord to bless our efforts. This I know He will do but because we have made a firm commitment to be in service as light workers we have to work that little bit harder as we formulate a working strategy that will ultimately safeguard the membership as well as the integrity of all who are associated with the Tau vision. I know that I can always rely on your prayers, your love and generosity to maintain the momentum as we aim to secure a place for all of us to be one family and radiate Love and Light out to the world and reunite all believers and non believers as one family of God.

Bless you for your continued support and know that I have your best interests in my heart and would ask that you make time to bring this special request before Sananda Jesus, Magdalene, Mother Mary, the entire Angelic Host and your Guides to guide all of us as we enter a new phase in our final steps to honour this vision and bring it together. Prayer will guide us and we will all benefit from its efficacy and strength especially now as we wait patiently on the Lord to OPEN THE DOOR for all of us to walk into the centre singing and praising God.

Your Beloved Brother Essene and Friend always.

Message from Sananda Jesus to Sean.

28th January 2007

"You are indeed my chosen ones. Like Moses, he was called by God to empower the 'Chosen People' to return to their roots in service to Yahweh. No sooner when they were rescued from the tyranny of the Egyptian rulers, having crossed the Red Sea to safety by Mount Sinai, as soon as Moses left them to climb the mountain of God, they became enslaved in ego. To help them, God gave them Ten Commandments to enrich their lives and set them free. Instead, they choose another path. Today, God has called you with the members of the Tau Community to wear the 'Tau Symbol' representing God's love and protection for all His family.

The Tau symbol is a symbol of Divine love empowering those who wear it as a means to an end. The means represents unity and peace for all within and without the family of the Heavenly Father, Mother God who are in search of truth. The end represents a diverse family whose beliefs in 'One God' have separated them through guilt, fear, oppressive rules and a belief that is not of God but more about man's ego. The end is about reclaiming one's lost innocence and been reunited with God.

I gave Moses rules to inspire love in your hearts. Today, I give you, my beloved ones a simpler way – a symbol to wear that will generate love for all who are seeking Divine Love and Light. Beloved ones, wear the Tau symbol as a token of my love and allow me to guide you, my children, back home. The symbol is many things to all. When you turn the Tau symbol upside down – love flows from the heart of the Father Mother God out to you the family of God. When the symbol is worn correctly it represents the opened arms of God reaching down to you today.

The Tau symbol is more about unification not division! Wearing the Tau symbol enables you to become a sacred vessel that will feed the hungry with my love and light. Be still and know that in all situations, love always triumphs over adversity.

God uses the simple things in life to confound the wise and ignorant. So take heart my beloved ones and know that I am with you in your faith journey. Remain attached to my love and know that this sacred symbol will protect you from entity attack and will empower you discern who is with me and who is against me.

My children be aware of the movement we now call 'New Age'. This is a movement that is far removed from the Father Mother God. Always be on your guard against the false prophets who bring new ideas and philosophies that will inevitably ensnare you heart and many who embrace it are caught up in its sham. There is only one true way and that way is divine, all embracing and speaks only the truth to your hearts. Anything that does not mention my name be aware and discern in your heart whether this is the right message for you. Always speak your truth and know that there is a price to pay for been honourable to my name. I have called you friends because that is what you are my beloveds. Never flinch in the face of adversity. Know that I walk beside you and ask that you remain in my love.

There are many who initially found the right way and who connected with my truth. Then came the storms that tested their heart but instead of laying a solid foundation based on daily prayer, meditation and service they ended up following another whose heart was fuelled not by my love but by their own ego. Thought they have chosen another path and often one that is alien to my truth, I will never, ever give up on them. My love will challenge them through the words that I place on your hearts to convey to their hardened and troubled hearts. Be wary of those who dress in fine clothes and who avoid looking into your eyes. They come as wolves in sheep's clothing leading my children astray from the path of truth. The journey is a lonely one for the light worker who remains connected with my heart. But if you remain in my love, you will never be alone because I am there for you and I will walk alongside you each step of your faith journey. I never said your life would be easy. However I did say that I would be there for you when you ask for my help.

I send you my love. Remember my beloveds, when you remain in your hearts, there you will find me. I am in the very air that you breathe into your being. Everything given to you are given freely and without force. Heed the words of my mother. Mother Mary is there for you as she was for me. Pray often and know that whatever you ask in my name, I will give it to you. As a child of the Father Mother God, you are worth more than you could ever imagine. You are a child of God and have a right to come and ask. Never be afraid to ask and when you honour me before men, I will honour you before my Father Mother God in heaven. Celebrate your life and enjoy each life lesson. Now invite my light into your very hearts and allow love and light transform you and enable you transcend into fifth dimensional energy. This is what you came here for. I am with you be strong and never loose heart.

Yours in love and blessings.

SANANDA BRIDES

The title Sananda Brides, or Brides of Jesus Christ the Ascended Master and Teacher, may appear a daunting if not a challenging concept for the light worker who has no intention of joining a monastic community as a nun or monk. Many years ago when I became a monastic nursing monk, the ceremony involved certain rituals that involved being espoused to the Church, the Mystical Body of Christ.

But before you totally dismiss the idea, may I share with you my understanding why the modern day Therapeutae, or Light Worker is now been guided by the Spirit of God to embrace a more mystical and spiritual relationship with God through Sananda Jesus. Many of us who agreed to reincarnate as light workers today did so because of our personal connection with Sananda Jesus. We instantly recognised His charisma when we reconnected with the healing energies of the Divine Feminine; the Magdalene energies and especially the energies connected with the Essenes. The strong links with the Red Sea especially the Sinai Peninsula by Taba has a strong energy pull for me. One could sense the energy of Love and Light as demonstrated by the ancient brotherhood, the Essenes as they established small communities across Egypt. Their daily life consisted of worshipping God by reciting the Daily Communions at sunrise, noon and again at sunset. In January 2007, I brought a group of 25 of our therapists and friends on a spiritual retreat to rediscover these ancient healing energies. The shared demonstration of caring and brotherly, sisterly love generated a magical experience and for me as I was recapturing a time when I lived and worked with the Master Jesus as an Essene.

Today, in my heart I sense that something really wonderful and beautiful is happening for therapists who embrace the teachings of Sananda Jesus and the Divine Feminine. Their love is all embracing for our soul journey. There is a sense that we the light worker, are now been called to reunite as one loving family to support and strengthen each other to remain as one. That union is cohesive and strengthening on all levels and more importantly it is grounding. If we should momentarily stray from the path and loose sight of our divinity then we have the infrastructure already in place in our shared groups for daily sustenance. Our spiritual development demands that we prioritise what is best for our 'highest good' and anything that no longer serves our highest good, then we are encouraged to abandon it and let go so that God can reign supreme in our hearts. So why do we allow ourselves settle for second best when we can have only the best?

Many light workers are now experiencing relationship problems causing them deep inner pain leaving them feeling a sense of personal frustration as well as isolation in their spiritual connection with Source. The energy shifts that are coming through are challenging us to take back our personal power and reclaim our divinity as a child of God. We know that as bearers of the 'Good News associated with the teachings of Sananda Jesus' we cannot serve two masters. Instead of fooling ourselves into thinking that we can manage diversity better than most because of our spiritual relationship with Jesus, we have to act responsibly to the point of distancing ourselves from anyone, anything or anybody whose sole intent is to separate us in our spiritual closeness with God. There is no room for compromise or trying to believe that we can convert others to our way of thinking. As the saying goes, 'you can bring a horse to the well but you cannot make it drink'. As Jesus said to his followers, 'those who have ears to hear will hear'. If we are living in a loveless relationship, then we have to remember that to be in love with someone means that we have to let go when there is no evidence of love. Love is knowing when to let go of the person we love but who is not in love with us. However hard this may be for us, there is no use hanging on for the sake of others. In the end, we only end up destroying ourselves. The light worker has to accept one's limitations and know that often God speaks to our hearts in the shadows as well as in the brightness. If insecurity, fear. Guilt, unforgiveness holds us back then we have a duty to self medicate with the Love of God and get back on track before we loose everything. The mind plays many a tune to distract us in our search for Love and Light. The mind is Ego and ego is and will always remain anti God-anti love and light. As light workers we have a duty to care first for ourselves then go and heal the sick.

Today, more than ever before in the annals of history, Sananda Jesus is inviting us to forsake the pleasures of this world and remain totally detached in our minds, our ego, thus leaving our hearts ready to receive a daily outpouring of spiritual love. I sense too that we are also been encouraged to remain present in this world so that we can 'let our lights shine out' to all who are searching for love and light. I believe that there is a place for the Sananda Bride to remain a positive influence in the world and yet remain a key player in balancing negative into positive energy. We are not doormats for the world's cast offs. I believe that as a child of God, we are in service to Sananda Jesus in God and instead of allowing others dump their negativity onto us, we have a duty to empower them to take responsibility for their actions. Our first duty is to be in service to Sananda Jesus not a servant as was given to me as a trainee monk. A servant has no official status in God's house. If we are in Jesus then we are united as one and as one we are coheirs, co creators of God for God through Sananda Jesus.

As light workers who have experienced the presence of Jesus in our hearts, we know that they belong to Sananda Jesus. When we remain in that state of union, our hearts will continue to be transformed to another dimension of pure love and light. In our prayer times alone with the Master, our teacher, we are encouraged to return to an intimate sacred union. That union is the Hierus Gamus or mystical marriage. Yes, we can live in a loving relationship with our partner and yet remain in love with Jesus. To love another person intimately is to embrace God. We can also take this relationship to an advanced level by remaining totally His. Only God can direct us to embrace what feels right for us and there is never any coercion to do something that is alien to us.

So where is the anecdotal evidence supporting the concept of Sananda Bride? From the beginning of time, men and women have served their religious deities as Priests and Priestesses. It was not by chance that initiates to this high office were chosen. This invitation was the custom and practice of that time and certain families were chosen by their ruler to produce their first-born sons and daughters for this honour. In other words, families were individually groomed and afforded special favours for their offerings to the Temple. The appointment was never challenged by the initiate but seen as a great honour to serve in the Temple. Upon entry into the priesthood, individuals were groomed for the highest honour that could be given to them. To serve the Gods by offering sacrifice on behalf of their rulers for all mankind was indeed a laudable profession. Using a modern term, the priests had job security and a sense of job satisfaction.

In the past two thousand years, the devotees of Jesus made themselves available for service by working together for the common good. Some remained married and had children whereas others decided to remain single and embrace a closer relationship with their God. For the individual who experienced the 'call of God' they decided to celebrate their sacred union, or Hierus Gamus, by joining a community that encouraged spiritual union. As with all organisations the mind cannot cope with simplicity and eventually truth is sacrificed on the alters of man's ego. Today, we have seen the insurgence of another deity that rules as well as governs the very heart of all mankind. It is what we call 'The God of Paper'. Rules and regulations eventually corrode the heart of man leaving one feeling a sense of incompleteness in service to God and all that is pure, whole and complete.

Many of us who work as light workers today sense a deep connection with Atlantis. In fact, many of us have had a previous life experience of serving as priests or priestesses in the temple. Many light workers have also shared their real sense of sadness at the fall of Atlantis and its richness benefiting all who sought nirvana. The fall of Atlantis was indeed the beginning of the end for those of us who gave our minds and our hearts to the Light. There was I believe a spiritual collective of minds and those of us who agreed to serve Love and Light and address the imbalance caused by the fall of Atlantis agreed to return into this incarnation as Therapeutae, serving the 'I AM PRESENCE.'

In the time of the Pharaohs, the priests were dedicated in their service to their spiritual leader. When a Pharaoh died, it was expected that the priests would surrender their life and accompany their master to face a living death. This idea of enforced slavery to God is beyond all comprehension. We are invited to accept a personal invitation and only a few remain true to their calling. Many agree to follow the Master Jesus but when the going gets tough for them they abandon all connections and turn away to serve the mind, their ego. It takes real discipline to remain in one's heart and avoid the ego. Many learned scholars who found inner enlightenment in God's presence also enjoyed the adulation and all that this entailed. They generated followers who fed their ego instead of redirecting the praise to God.

Being a light worker in the 21st century can be no different to that of the priests and priestesses in the time of the Mayans or the Pharaohs. If we remain steadfast in our calling and nurture our hearts with solace in the presence of Jesus, then angels will come and administer to all our needs.

We know from our wide experience of living life in this modern world that there are times when we know to be true that those 'who shout out the loudest' are inevitably heard'. Why? Because they never give in to an inferior service. If we as light workers wish to be heard then we have to demonstrate our core values not by ranting and raving but by connecting with the teachings of the ancient Essenes and those demonstrated by Jesus. We have to exemplify love in our daily lives. Through our persistent efforts of sharing love and light will we allow Jesus change lives? It is well worth remembering that it is not the messenger who is important but the message that they bring to our hearts. For the best part of fifty years, as a Catholic Christian I allowed my head to dominate my heart and in all that time I realise that I distanced myself from a loving God. I gave permission to those appointed by God to convince me that serving God was more about adhering to specific rules and regulations. In my naivety I believed that the appointed representatives of God were speaking God's truth. I have since come to the realisation that man interfered with God's message to his people and replaced love and light with fear, guilt, shame for daring to be different in the presence of God. As another saying goes, 'give man an inch and he takes a yard'. Again, man's ego always got in the way of him hearing God speak a simple message of love to His children. Instead of falling in and out of love with the messenger, we should never lose sight of the message.

A deep rooted ache remains in the heart of man because the pain experienced in their former incarnation as priests and priestesses is ready to explode pure love and light to all who are willing to receive. The world is the equivalent of the ancient Temple and we are invited to serve the world by sharing only the purest love of detachment.

In my work as a therapist and pastoral counsellor, I am regularly challenged when I meet up with fellow light workers who say that they have returned into this incarnation to make amends for past lives. Nothing could be further from the truth. It is my belief that as we have agreed to return to facilitate the return of Christ Consciousness –Sananda Jesus invites us to be His hands; His feet and His beating heart to a world where the Divine has already been compromised through man's ego. To say that we have come back to make amends or pay the price for past misdemeanours is nothing other than pure ego. I believe that we have agreed to come back not with negativity or past life issues but bring into this life experience all the positive life experiences and the wisdom we have acquired in other lifetimes. That wealth of positive experience can only be for the good of all mankind. To say that the opposite is true is to interfere with the ascension process thus keeping the world in an unhealthy negative mindset.

On a more positive note, there is an old saying 'that what goes around always comes around full circle'. I believe that society is changing and many are seeking refuge in 'old ways' that have been tried and tested and which have served them well. Today, many of us who represent Sananda Jesus in our work as light workers are listening to the heart –our Christ centre. In fact, there is a growing army of devotees who are also adhering to the simple messages of Mother Mary. She calls us to reflect and pray earnestly for the safe return of her Son, Jesus. Mother Mary has appeared to many in this lifetime to be eco warriors and safeguard the world we now live in. When we look out of our bedroom windows what do we really see? We see that in the name of God mankind is slowly destroying each other in the name of Love and Light for land, power, greed, control etc. Is this what 21st century man has to leave as a legacy for future generations? The choice is ours to make.

I believe that when our heart is fully open to the mind of God we will perceive the simple message that is directed to our heart. As light workers, we have a primordial duty to see beyond mere words and connect with the heart centre, our God centre. To be a Bride for Sananda Jesus is to embark on another journey, a sacred journey embracing all that there IS.

The Ascended Masters have a vision for light workers as well as for all mankind. In July 2006, Lord Kutumi alias Saint Francis, spoke directly to the hearts of our therapists and students offering a challenge to establishing the Tau Community. The Tau community is an interfaith family of soul seekers in search of spiritual truth. In that spiritual family one can choose to follow Sananda Jesus as a member; an associate member or as a Sananda Bride in service to Love and Light.

Message from Sananda to all of us:

“Greetings My Beloved ones”. You are my friends because despite what has been levelled at you by others namely family, partners, friends, colleagues and society, you have remained steadfast and true to what I have taught you.

My message to you today is the same message that I gave to your heart many life times ago. Hold fast to what is and nurture our relationship based on unconditional love.

Let your light shine for others to see. Never doubt my presence but embrace me in the inner recesses of your heart. All is well and remember that today I call you to be a vortex of love and light just like in ancient times when you glorified God in the sacred Temples of Atlantis and Egypt. Yes, mankind now needs to return to truth and embrace my love. You are my love and all that I would ask of you is that you remain in your heart. Support each other and know that whatever you do in my name I am there among you. Be still and know that I am God. Take heart and trust in my unconditional love for you, child of God.”
