

Summer Newsletter (June - August) 2005

Dearest friends and fellow soul mates –Summer Greetings from Chapel Gap.

Apologies for the lateness –better late than ever!

Its than enviable time again when 'the hand doesn't want to write' and my head is saying they already know the latest News from upstairs! But, here goes anyway.

Our recent Angel Healing Day Workshop in Dublin was a deeply humbling experience as always when the Realms invite those special people who come with 'no expectations' but to be and receive! Several people stand out from that day and, as always, one cannot in all fairness single one individual out at the expense of offending others. I would like to thank everyone for being a part of that memorable day and for touching my life with so much healing 'Love & Light. Special thanks must go out to our therapists in Ireland for their loving and tireless support as always. A word of thanks must go to Mairead (Conlon) for organizing that beautiful day and not forgetting Gertie and Bill for their hospitality at Ard Na Ri in Clonmacnoise, Co Offaly. We are so looking forward to our return visit there in September'05.

Since my return from Ireland in late April, I have indeed been overwhelmed with the positive feedback to my first ever publication Angelic Energies. So many have said that in the book are 3 possibly 4 books bursting to get out! Well, I have prayed long and hard and discerned that I should attempt to address the many requests and accept the challenge to spread 'Love and Light' along the way!

Thank God for that time in the late 90's, when I was resting in the wilderness of mental illness. There I received many insights and guidance that was saved to floppy discs and saved. The contents for the 3 of the 5 books have now been 'dusted down' and resurrected for your benefit. The midnight oils have indeed been burned and in a sense Rob and the doggies have become 'computer widows'. Ha! Don't blame me – send your complaints by angel post to Source if I have neglected your friendship.

During the interim months I have had to knuckle under and complete the 3 sequels to the bestselling book "Angelic Energies". The 1st Book "Therapeutic Channelling for Practitioners" (Pages 241 -86.000 words) is now printed and over the weekend it is my task to double check the printed version before ordering copies of the book. I expect new copies to be available from 16th June. The cost is £ 15.50 incl P&P.

The 2nd sequel "Let Your Light Shine for 2012" is now almost complete with just some feedback to 2012 and Jesus and Mary Magdalene to be added to the manuscript. Its about 286 pages and 90.000 words in total. I was approached by our beautiful friend Ann Marie and fellow lightworker in Kentucky USA to send it to her for proof reading in light of the few mistakes with Angelic Energies! The book should be available from the 1st week July in good time for the first series of 1 Day Conferences, starting in Manchester on 30th July 2005. The price, incl P&P is £15.00.

Finally the 3rd sequel "Sacred Tools connecting you with Source", should be ready to send to the printers by 1st week July. We are still waiting on the feedback from several clients and friends re: Prayer and 2012 etc before letting it go. The book will include ' The Lightworker's Way', a 7 day series of morning and evening prayers and reflections underpinned by the teachings of the Essenes. I am hoping to publish the Lightworkers Way as a separate small publication for those who require it. A Busy bee stinging all and sundry in the process! Ha! Please forgive!

I would like to thank Adrian Holland for his kind permission to use his exquisite painting see below the healing essence and energies of Jesus and Mary Magdalene for our next book Let Your Light Shine for 2012. His work is of the highest vibration and Adrian is indeed a pure channel for Source. See one of his paintings below. If you would like to contact Adrian, his details will soon be added to my site. I should like to thank Helen for her professional support in the design covers for the remaining two publications.

Special Birthdays for Summer months are:

Suzanne Bertenshaw (Oldham) on 6th June; Agie Drummond (Scotland) on the 17th June; Martin Thornber (Liverpool) 2nd August and Helen Wilkins (Morecambe) 26th August. Have an enjoyable and Blessed Day when it arrives (21 again)!

Our Latest Video /DVD Release “Celebrating Healing Energies for 2102

Jimmy, of Luk Luk Productions, has assured me that the filming went well and that the footage of the therapists in action demonstrating the ‘Therapeutic Channelling as the treatment’ with their feedback to 2012, Mary Magdalene, Sacred Tools and Prayer, concluding with the final shots filmed on location on the Holy Island of Lindesfarne off the Northumberland coast last w/end, is the best yet! I would personally like to thank our therapists (Angela, Theresa and Paula) for their contributions & support in the making of the video. I cannot forget Peter, Jimmy and Rosemary for their untiring support. The final version will be available in DVD and Video format -The cost including P&P is £24.00.

On June 19th, I have been invited to run the angel healing day at the Spiritualist Healing Centre in Harrogate by Lesley, one of our new students on the August Course. Please remember both of us that day.

In July 2005 we will see Martin and Paula graduate from the Academy as fully trained therapists. In August we welcome Margaret, Lesley and ? Anne Louise from Yorkshire to start the 6 month Therapist's Course here at Chapel Gap. Please remember them in your prayers.

The news from our Teachers are indeed a boost. Bernie in Mullingar has organised several angel healing days with encouraging feedback from her students. Jeanne in St Helens has also started the Introductory Angel Healing Day Course with great acclaim and praise for her work there at the Armana Holistic Centre. Angela in Dublin is still waiting on the right time to kick the ball into touch and fly....on behalf of Him who commissioned you, I thank you for your loyalty and love as always Next Get To Gether Planned for Therapists is Sunday 21st August when we hope to have a go with a BBQ with entertainment ?? Think Turkey - think belly dancing! Can't wait to see one of our own perform sacred dance on hallowed turf!

September we are back to Ireland to run a 2 day residential healing workshop at Ard Na Ri from 23rd - 25th. We hope to run a Festival of Angels at Ard Na Ri on 1st October concluding with a final 1 day Festival of Angels celebrating World Angels Day in Dublin on the 2nd. Proceeds from the Dublin event will go towards the Peace Movement in Northern Ireland. MAiread from the Angel's Shop in Dublin is organizing the events. Details of these events and others are all listed on the website

Please Remember in yor Prayers

Therapists of the Academy (Vivienne, Angela, Janet, Paula, Theresa and Cindy) Please include in your prayers our friends who are 'battle weary' and in need of respite. Please remember Elsie (Hebden Bridge) Kath Y. (Manchester); Ann Marie and her family in (Kentucky), Joan & Steve (Manchester), Adrian & Margaret (Chester), Nerys (Anglesley), Nigel (Wrexham), Angela (Carlisle), Lesley & Amelia (Harrogate).

Since our last Newsletter, I have terminated all business relations with Crystal Clear Promotions forthwith. Should you require information about our products (CD's, Videos and Books) you are invited to either visit our website at www.sean-bradley.com, you can email or phone me at Chalel Gap. Our 'life lessons' often come wrapped in glittery paper and then we have to learn the lesson! WOW!

Thanks to our web-designers, Helen and Geoff, we now have installed PAY PAL for clients wishing to order and pay on-line. Another wee miracle from the Realms!

For several months now, I regularly receive e-mails from around the world asking whether I sell the 'Blessed Oils' to clients. From the early days, I have never seen the need to sell the oils as I was apprehensive of exploiting the product. However, after much thought, advice and support from friends and our therapists, my heart assures me that promoting the blessed oils for therapists to use for their clients, is commendable and hopefully it will soon be on sale via the website. The 'blessed oils' containing all the essential ingredients of (Spikenard, Rosemary, Lavender, grains of pure Frankinsence blended in pure virgin olive oil) as used in the Therapist's course, married with my own healing energies and the healing energies in my Prayer Room. The oils will be sold in a 60ml blue glass bottle. The price is £4.50 including P&P.

On a funny note, we conclude the shortest Newsletter in the history of Chapel Gap - whilst up in Northumberland filming the final closing shots for the next video on Holy Island, we decided to pay a visit to Eyemouth harbour and stretch our legs! Our dog Winston decided to enjoy his break to the seaside too! He was facinated by the huge waves and whilst trying to attack the waves, the sounds caused a stirr and he momentarily lost his footing and was submerged by the waves causing him to lose his balance. His little face said it all! His head got covered with a large smelly /fishy clump of seaweed leaving Lord Winston looking frightened and not amused! He soon gained his composure despite Miss Ellie looking on in her inimitable lady like fashion. You could almost hear the two of them talk to each other and it may have sounded something like "Winston dear boy, when will you learn and stop being such a prat and behave. You know, I too had been there many years ago but never again. The smell of fish stayed for weeks! 'Butter wouldn't melt in her mouth'. Ha!

Sending you all our Love and Light and woofies from the terrible duo 'therapists in waiting'. Ha!

Have a wonderful Summer and catch up with you all soon.

Sean, Rob, Miss Ellie and Lord Winston xxxx

Newsflash from around the world

The Brazilian congress is now voting on a project that will reduce the Amazon forest to 50% of its size. It will take 1 MINUTE to read this, but PLEASE put your names on the list and forward this on as instructed below.

First, some short facts:

- the Amazon rainforest is responsible for the generation of 20% of the oxygen that we on this earth breathe,
- 30% of the world's fresh water is contained within the Amazon basin,
- 60% of the cancer fighting drugs used today, are derived from plants that can only be found within the Amazon rainforest.

The area that is to be deforested is 4 times the size of Portugal and would be mainly used for agriculture and pastures for livestock.

All the wood is to be sold to international markets in the form of wood chips, by large multinational companies. The truth is that the soil in the Amazon forest is useless without the forest itself. Its quality is very acidic and the region is prone to constant floods.

At this time more than 160,000 square kilometres (deforested with the same purpose) are abandoned and in the process of becoming deserts, meaning that this proposal is in the short term interests of a few, in the long term interests of none.

Please copy (cut & paste) the entire text into a new e-mail, put your complete name in the list below, and send to everyone you know.

(DON'T JUST FORWARD IT - AS IT WILL THEN END UP WITH ROWS AND ROWS of ">"s

- which discourages people from sending on.) If you are the 400th person to sign please send a copy to: fsaviolo@openlink.com.br

Thank you for your help: Sean x
