

WINTER NEWSLETTER 2004

A BLESSED & SPIRIT FILLED CHRISTMAS WITH ANGELIC LOVE & LIGHT.

In the words of that famous TV character, Victor Meldrew, "I don't believe it"...It's that time of year when the Media have started to bombard us with 'Merry Christmas'! The past several years, I have undergone a complete change and gone more towards living the 'simple life' devoid of materialism and its trappings. In the words of another famous song, "Those were the days my friend –we thought they'd never end." As materialism goes, it has ended!

This year, we are following the excellent example of our mutual friend, Alison Knox of 'Every Day Angels' of celebrating an "Alternative Christmas" by sending a donation to "World Vision" on your behalf. Instead of the customary Christmas card, our donation of helpful hens will enable a Christian school for orphans to stay open in Jerusalem. If the school can sell eggs, it will raise funds so the children's education can continue. The opportunities just keep hatching! Details about donating can be found at www.greatgifts.org or Tel: 0845-6006446.

I would like to take this opportunity by including you in our alternative Christmas gift to express my heartfelt thanks to you for the love and support that you have shown us in 2004. Without your invaluable support, openness and truth, some of my 'life lessons' would not have been learned. As a light worker we share a combined love, not only for the Creator (Heavenly Father) with the 9 Choirs of Angels but for our Earthly Mother (Mother Mary/ Gaia); the angels of the Earth Realms & animal kingdom; the Elementals, Tree Devas, Nature Spirits. Everything given to us is given in LOVE, with no hidden agendas – the gifts that we each receive are given on loan to invest wisely and manifest our inheritance from a place of absolute integrity.

Because of our uniqueness and sacredness as a Child of God, we are loved with an unconditional, reverent, selfless love. Yes, we are respected by God, the entire angelic realms as co creators of the Divine One. You and I can touch many lives from our quiet place without having to leave our homes. An effective healer is one who is attached to the Divine and detached from the self, the ego. We are invited by the Creator to remain focussed, not on what we can do as healers but on what God can and will do through our childlike trust and simplicity.

But what is the science of prayer? Saint Francis of Assisi held the view that prayer is a conscious awareness of the presence of the Divine God in everything that lives, moves and breathes as having their existence from Source –the Creator. The science of prayer is a collective response of uniting minds and hearts to send out positive love and light (Christ Consciousness) to the universe. Collective prayer 'love and light' will prevent ancient prophecies, as predicted by Nostradamus, from having a devastating impact upon our society and the earth.

Prayer is a working from one's heart centre (Christ Consciousness) and connecting with all that we truly are as a Child of God, a child of the light. We are empowered by the healing essence of Divine Love to connect with the Source and through our very existence as a child of God, we become co creators of the Divine for the Divine and with the Divine. Our daily contact with God through nature and working with the angels of the Nine Choirs as well as the Angels of the Four Spheres, the elements of earth, fire, water, air we are transformed into living sanctuaries where the Creator God lives. Even the animal kingdom have an angelic presence that connects with our soul when we have had the scales of 'self hate' removed. The angels of the Earth Realm and the animal kingdom are our teachers as they know only selfless love for their Creator and in turn manifest this to everything that lives, that moves and has their existence from Source.

Prayer is not only that which we say or use in a Church. The science of prayer teaches us that when we embrace the God within our life and our life's work as teachers and healers, we embrace Christ Consciousness we behold the face of God in its perfection and beauty. When the Creator made us he made perfection. When we operate from our 'head centre' we experience the ugly face of our humanity and imperfections and deny ourselves the opportunity to embrace selfless, reverent, healing love

The presence of selfless love inspires us to release all negative energy and reclaim our divinity as a co creator of God. But first we have to connect and release our inner wounded child, before we can 'Behold-Enfold-Hold-Listen to the sacred voices of pure Divine Love.

Many centuries ago, a group of dedicated scholars decided to vacate mainstream society and agreed to live in community in isolation from the negative energy of towns and cities. They lived usually in an oasis or by the lakes suitable for communing with their God three times daily through invoking the angels of Nature realms. They dedicated their lives to serving their God, sharing a common purpose with equality as their core values. Their love of the Holy Books and sacred writings of the ancients inspired them to painstakingly write down each document. The group were known as the Essenes and it was their teachings and simple philosophy "The Tree of Life" that inspired many great men and women to dedicate their lives to God in daily prayer both then and more importantly today. Several well-known names were members of this group. They were Jesus, John the Baptist, Peter, Mark, John and Mary Magdalene to name but a few.

In November 2003, we entered a new phase of enlightenment known as the Harmonic Concordance that facilitated a major shift or an awareness of spirituality in particular our own beliefs. Many scholars have reported the year 2012 as the dawn of the New Aquarius (Christ Consciousness) when we enter a major shift in Divine Consciousness that will directly have a positive impact for all who work as light workers and spiritual healers.

The word healer refers to God alone as it is the Creator who heals and transfers Divine energy through those who have rededicated their lives to being of service to God as potential healers. So many therapists who work in partnership with spiritual healing energy, fail to take care of their spiritual needs. They operate from a place of isolation and neglect their spiritual life as being an essential part of all that they are as a Child of God. When the self gets in the way of the healing process, our negative voices isolate our spiritual connectedness with our God and thus release energies, which are transferred from the therapist/s to the client leaving them in a vulnerable place. This is not what spiritual, divine healing is about.

Working with the Divine asks only this that we 'Behold –Enfold -Hold and Listen' to the inner sacred voices coming from God and communicating love and Light to our Heart Centre. This demands that we reconnect with all that we truly are as a co creator of God and that we listen to God in periods of silence. "Silence is the Sister of the Divine".

Therapists who work from their head centre are often overwhelmed with their own personal issues. In light of what is revealed to them, they become focussed on results and need assurances. Negative energies are transmuted and transferred through their worries, their fears and insecurities. They lack the integrity that is required of them as therapists and healers. But we are invited each day to come back to the Source, the Creator God who loves us.

Therapeutic Channelling using sacred oils to anoint the feet of clients and therapists is another such prayer demonstrating God's love for His children through the art of connecting one's soul, mind and heart with God in the presence of the healing energies of the Lord Christ and the angelic realms. Silence is another powerful prayer that opens our heart to receive pure love, affirming us that we are whole, perfect and complete in the presence of God. Through practical prayer –a lifting or raising up of our mind and heart before the Creator in the presence of Christ Consciousness and the angelic realms, messengers of God, we are empowered to take back our personal power and control and work from a place of selfless, reverent, healing love that embraces all and everything that we come into contact with as a healer or therapist working in partnership with the Divine God/dess.

Through connecting with my heart centre and listening to the still voice of God, I have been encouraged to take another 'step for the Light' and bring the information channelled from Christ and the realms to the wider community in the UK and abroad from 2005. Let Your Divine Light Shine is the Academy's mandate for 2005. The 1 day Conference about 2012, Christ Consciousness and the teachings of the Essenes, starts in Derby 1st May – ending up in Cork, Ireland on 11 Dec'05.

See enclosed dates and hopefully we may get the opportunity to celebrate all that we are in Love and Light.
