

Teachings From the Masters – 12

God bless, this is Sananda. You are aware that the time is nigh for the awakening of mankind to a new awareness of his spirituality – many of you have awakened to this. It is true that it is difficult to accept this capability that you will have in time to come – this ascension plan for mankind, which has already begun. So many of you feel ready to accept it, and feel that it is a wonderful time in the history of man – a time of great excitement. It is as though you are standing on the brink of a new life –which you will be, because once you have reached the fifth dimension you will be capable of blending with the Cosmic Consciousness, and capable of miraculous deeds which you may find necessary to prove to those who are on the point of awakening that this is their true reality also. It takes time to digest these new thoughts – I know that there are some who cannot accept them yet, but there has been that seed thought planted in their minds which can be stored away until the time when they are ready to accept this plan which will come about in due course.

As I have said previously, it is very difficult to put a time limit on everything because so much depends on how man is reacting one to the other. If there is a change in the hearts of those who are at present at war there will be a new attitude to peace, so that the problem that may be expected to arise from the Earth changes may not be so disastrous as you might imagine. If man will be more tolerant and less power mad in these areas, then the changes will be smoother and more peaceful for all. I feel that man being what he is and always has been in the past (except for the true beginning of man when he first appeared upon Earth) that there have always been wars and rumours of wars since then, so there will be some dramatic happenings within the Earth. By what I mean there will be volcanic action in certain areas, and as you know the climate has already changed throughout the world. You have found yourselves – you have discovered that the seasons are becoming confused so that although you realise that this is winter it is like a day in spring or early summer.

All this is occurring worldwide and some areas are finding that the winters have become extremely severe, with the temperatures dropping to an all-time low, whereas in other areas the heat is unbearable, and still more parts of the world where, as you know, there has been more flooding than has been known for fifty years or more. All these changes have been occurring of recent years and they have been more dramatic as time has gone by, particularly over the last year. All this has come about because the Earth herself is changing slowly but surely – rising to that higher dimension into which you yourselves will ascend. Everything changes - nothing stays the same in any lifetime – change is good and you yourselves have found that imperceptibly change is occurring all around you. Apart for the climate, you yourselves and those around you are changing – hopefully for the better, because most of you who read these chapters are on the spiritual path and are gradually raising your consciousness higher as time goes by through meditation and prayer and upliftment – spiritual upliftment. This is been given to you from us – from the Ascended Masters and that band of us who are working to help mankind through this transition period.

It is a time of great awareness of the new energies, which have been pouring down through from the heavens above into the Earth. This light that you have been bringing down yourselves through you – filling you and purifying you, and down into the centre of the Earth where that light is required for the Earth herself. All of you have been helping at this time by bringing these energies and the light through you and shining your light upon others, helping them appreciate what can be done through regular meditation – trying to enlighten those who are ready to accept the word of God. Your lives will continue as before – you will still be taking part in your normal activities and meeting others through your activities of various kinds, either work or leisure. Those with whom you come into contact may notice a change in you and remark on it perhaps – it may be that they have noticed that you have become stronger in your faith or perhaps more confident.

All this will occur gradually and you may not be aware of it – it may happen almost overnight that you awaken feeling more confident in your faith. It is important that your faith is strong now, ready to impart the wisdom that you have been acquiring both from these teachings and other books, which have been written recently about spirituality, and all the books that have been written in the past. Channelled from the Masters particularly by Alice Bailey, into many other languages who was intelligent enough to be capable of passing on work by the Master R. this is not the type of work, which can be read by the man in the street shall we say, but it is the work, which has been extremely important to all mankind. It has been read by numerous people over the years since it was recorded and translated so that throughout the world many have benefited from this work. But I am directing my words to those who are intelligent enough to appreciate these changes and yet find the work of Alice Bailey and Madam Blavatsky difficult. Madam Blavatsky's work is even more complex, but she was a pioneer in the past for those who were capable of understanding the work that she brought through. Her dramatic book 'The Secret Doctrine' has been read by those academically capable of assimilating this work.

My words are more simple, but they have the same meaning and the same purpose for mankind. It is for the upliftment of man's soul, so that the soul from now onwards will not have to suffer more karma in future years. Once the ascension takes place that wheel of rebirth and karma will then cease to turn, and you will find that you have completed your tasks of difficulty upon the Earth, and just have to pass on the knowledge that you have gained to those who are ready to ascend following you.

Dramatic changes are occurring upon the Earth and you are a part of that. You will be taking your place in helping both yourselves and others through the work that you will undertake from now on. You will accept the responsibility of your new awakening, and awaken others helping them on their way to ascend with you. Your new life will be one of great importance – there is so much to be done and very little time before these changes come about, so shoulder your responsibilities and accept these words when you feel that you can. Know that there is great love surrounding you and help will be given to you at all times. Ask and you shall receive, knock and the door shall be opened unto you, and that lighted doorway will shine before you and beckon you through into the light when the time comes do not worry that you have not seen that doorway or that window waiting for you. It means that it has not yet been the time for you to approach that threshold – that transition, but all will be well. All is being taken care of and know that your new life will be awaiting you when you will be working from that fifth dimension and the third dimension together, helping others through that doorway when they too are ready. There will be a time once all are through the doorway when you will wait to return to the Earth, when it will all be renewed and peaceful and beautiful once again. The Earth herself will be ready to receive you and make that new life a wonderful one for the future days for you and generations who are here waiting to take part in that new life with you.

I have told you that you will be able to see the Kingdom, which you at present cannot. Perhaps some of you can see the Devic Kingdom and others who are in the realms of light just from time to time, but once you have passed into that higher dimension they will be ready to greet you, and many who were lost to you will be found once more – loved ones who will be there to greet you. There is so much to look forward to when all are united and there is no separation any more. There is no true separation – all are one, all are part of the whole. It is just that for some time past man has been separate because he cannot see the unity that is truly his. He is truly part of the one – all that Cosmic Consciousness and the different kingdom of the Earth, which you are unaware of at present. They will be united with you and man will truly come into his own once more as the being of great power and light and spirituality that he once was.

We from the Higher Realms greet you and bless you; we give you our strength and hope, comfort and love for the future.

God bless.

Sananda
